

Hotel undergoing renovations

The new owner of the Windsor Hotel, Jack Cutler, who is president of Reltuc Development and Construction Corp. Ltd., has started renovations at the hotel.

The Red Lion Inn, part of the hotel, will be renovated to look like a British country inn.

Mr. Cutler is well known in the design and construction industry. He has been a member of numerous organizations such as the National Building Code, Canadian Standards Association, and the Ontario Building Code committees. He is chairman of the Ontario Building Code Commission, as well as the Managing Director of the Clay Brick Association of Canada.
